Goin' to a garden party...

With apologies to Ricky Nelson....

Fans of the Maryland Home & Garden Show can attend a preview party this Friday, and the cost of the ticket -- $50 in advance and $60 at the door -- will benefit Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake.

For the first time, the 19 fully landscaped, live gardens installed for the show will be the scene of a cocktail party from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Maryland State Fairgrounds on York Road.

Live jazz from the Adam Hopkins Quartet and student performers from Habitat partner schools will accompany the event, titled "Symphony of Spring."

Guests will not only be able to tour the 15,000 square feet of gardens but will also have the opportunity to meet with the landscapers.

For tickets, go online at www.habitatchesapeake.org or by calling Meredith Hewinson at 410-366-1250 ext. 135 or email her at mhewinson@habitatchesapeake.org.
