MEDIA ADVISORY

- WHAT: Three home dedications on Pleasant Street in Annapolis!
- WHO: Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake (HFHC)
- WHEN: February 26, 2011; 3:00 p.m.
- WHERE: 55, 57 and 59 Pleasant Street, Annapolis, MD 21401
- PARTICIPANTS: HFHC volunteers, sponsors, family members, community leaders and staff
- SIGNIFICANCE: We will dedicate the first three houses completed on 55, 57, and 59 Pleasant Street. We will be celebrating with Kim Brown, Ronald Moulden, and Yolanda Murray respectively. In addition, we will be applauding the support of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans and our many Lutheran partners (at 59 Pleasant Street) and John Martin (at 57 Pleasant Street) who sponsored the house in honor of his parents, Jack and Nina Martin, as well as the invaluable volunteers who helped with all three homes.

Excellent photo opp – homebuyers will be presented with keys to their new homes.
